

expanded election

foundations of Business, Business Law II, QuickBooks, International Business, Management, Computer Applications, Web Page Authoring, Systems Analysis, Microeconomics, and Consumer Economics.

The Web site www.mycommunitycollege.com includes all courses, both in-class and online, offered at Columbia-Greene. The regular spring semester begins January 9, while Intersession courses begin as early as January 4.

Early registration is recommended to maximize the chances of getting desired classes. If registering early is not an option, students can attend late registration on Thursday, January 14 (snow date January 15), from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Greenport campus.

In addition, nonmatriculated, part-time students can also register in person or by telephone weekdays, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Call (518) 828-181, extension 5514.

Financial aid is available to both full- and part-time students.

Opportunities include federal and state aid, loans and scholarships.

For more information, call the admissions office at (518) 828-4181, extension 5513, or e-mail info@mycommunitycollege.com.

Photo contributed

Making it real

Tech Valley High School freshmen Matt Sprague of Hoosick Falls and Max Morris of Ichabod Crane worked on a project in art, completing relief sculptures of ancient Roman art. The freshman class has just completed a project in which they rewrote Shakespeare's Julius Ceasar to bring a modern theme to the ancient story. "It's about bringing the entire concept together," said art teacher Ed Coolidge in a release. The East Greenbush school begins a series of information sessions next month, with one slated for January 28 at Hudson Junior/Senior High School, 215 Harry Howard Avenue, Hudson. For more information, call the school at (518) 862-4960.

Berkshire Country Day announces honor roll

LENOX, Mass.—The following local Berkshire Country Day School students are among the 34 seventh- through ninth-grade students named to the school's first trimester honor roll.

Isabelle Raposo of Valatie, a seventh-grade student, earned high honors;

Kelt Wilska of Old Chatham, a ninth-grade student, earned high honors;

Jackie Ansel of New

Lebanon, a ninth-grade student, earned honors;

Ayla Hull of New Lebanon, a seventh-grade student, earned honors; and Isaak van der Meulen of New Lebanon, a ninth-grade student, earned honors.

To achieve high honors, a student must maintain a GPA of 3.8 and receive no grade lower than a C+. To achieve honors, a student must maintain a GPA of at least 3.33 and receive a grade no lower than C+.

Berkshire Country Day School, an independent school for students in pre-school through ninth grade, exists to inspire the individual promise of every student so that each may become an exemplary citizen of the world, according to a release. More information can be found at www.berkshire-countryday.org.