

CONTROLLING POLICY

Pursuant to the inter-municipal agreement between the Albany-Schoharie-Schenectady-Saratoga Board of Cooperative Educational Services (“Capital Region BOCES”) and Rensselaer-Greene- Columbia Counties Board of Cooperative Educational Services (“Questar III”) dated November 2006, as revised on or around June 16, 2008 and May, 2018, each BOCES has been designated as the agency responsible to perform specific functions relative to the operation of Tech Valley High School. Specifically, Questar III is responsible for performing the following administrative services for Tech Valley High School: human resources services (including administration of collective bargaining agreements, health care benefits, retirement and other benefits); grant research and writing; communications; fixed assets inventor; and internal audit services. The Capital Region BOCES is responsible for performing the following administrative services for Tech Valley High School: computer, technology and related support services; business office services; and fiscal agent services.

It shall be the policy of the Tech Valley High School Operating Board that the policies of the BOCES designated to be responsible for any particular function shall control with respect to that function. Additionally, Questar III policies relating to student health matters will control for Tech Valley High School In the event that it is unclear or there is a dispute as to which BOCES policy should be applied to any particular function or issue, then the Board of the High Tech High School shall determine the same.

Adopted: March 22, 2007

Ratified: May 22, 2007

Revised: